ON TO CAL POLY!

By ROY C. CAVE,
Professor of Economics

The so-called World War No. 2 is fundamentally a war of imperialism. Its immediate cause is an attempt on the part of Germany to regain four things by threat of force: (1) regain territories and spheres of influence lost as a result of World War No. 1; (2) regain the dignity and prestige lost as a first rate power; (3) acquire areas containing needed raw materials, and (4) obtain markets for her goods. These four aims are closely related. By accomplishing the first, Germany could to a certain extent realize the other three. Since lost territories would give her raw materials, a wider market, and increased power. From the German point of view, the war is forced on their nation by the refusal of England and France, the "have nations," especially England, to permit Germany to regain lost territories, raw materials, and markets necessary for national existence. The allies deny this. They contend that their aim is to defend democracy, to destroy Hitlerism, and to restore Poland and Czechoslovakia.

The primary purposes of the Versailles treaty were to destroy Germany as a major power; to make her pay for the war as far as possible; and to increase the power and possessions of the allies. But Germany's resources were intact. An intolerable burden of reparations was imposed on her. High tariff barriers excluded her from normal world trade. Finally, she was disarmed.

But Germany was permitted to retain her economy intact, and had the post-war republic been aided by a moderation of reparations and tariff policies, it seems probable that the world depression would have been less severe, and that Nazism might not have risen to power in Germany. Bad economic conditions in Germany made dictatorship possible. Those conditions cost other European powers and the United States the foreign market in Germany.

When her ends, Germany undertook to build up a powerful military machine and aligned herself with Italy and later Russia. She became less useful to Germany after the Turko-English war, and the Italians lost interest in the German pact with Russia.

Her brand as absurd the argument that England and France are fighting to defend democracy. The questions whether these countries are true democracies, and point out that England especially has not hesitated to ally herself with the Greek and Turkish dictatorships, and that she tried to do the same with totalitarian Russia. The latter made a trade pact with Germany because the allied powers had less to offer. Russia, however, is apparently chiefly interested in regaining lost territories. Promised aid to Germany is an excuse for seizing territory. Beyond that, Russia may be interested in helping both sides fight, so as to extend her own power further.

Should Germany come out of this war with her present gains intact, such a victory would give no permanent assurance of peace and prosperity to Europe. German

Golden Tide Set To Battle Mustangs On Saturday Providing Backfield Men Now Out Are In Condition To Play

Coach Dick Boyle is all set to send his line into battle against Cal Poly's grid machine, on Saturday at San Luis Obispo. He's not so sure about his backfield.

All week the linemen have been practicing well and look in fine shape, but those backs! Boyle refuses to take the chance of running entirely out of ball carriers, so these men have been taking things easy during practice.

INJURED MEN

In the past couple weeks injuries, either on or off the field, have happened to backs Dave Schiller, Chad Reade, But Chandler, Jim Lowrie, Johnny Verducci, and Bill Stein. A rest might mean that most of these men will be O.K. by Saturday. Anyway, three of them are slated to open against the Mustangs.

At quarter State will have Bud Chandler, switched from right half, and for a reserve, Jack Kelly, switched from guard. At fullback,

C.S.T.A. Tours City Landmarks

A tour of several San Francisco landmarks under the direction of Dr. Sherman L. Brown, director of practice teaching, is to be held, following the C.S.T.A. meeting in Frederick Burke auditorium, Friday, October 27, at 4 o'clock. The excursion will include a visit through the post office, Palace hotel, and a Telegraph hill settlement house.

Helen Newell, C.S.T.A. president, urges all members to attend the meeting, and extends an invitation to those practice teachers interested in becoming members, to contact her through Box 1632.

On Monday, November 10, C.S.T.A. of San Francisco State, will play host to San Jose State, University of California, Mills college, Dominican college, College of the Pacific, California School of Fine Arts, San Francisco College for Women, and California College of Arts and Crafts. Plans for this event will be completed at Friday's meeting.

Murray Hill Is Definite Success

Despite the handicap of having the auditorium filled to such a capacity that many were even sitting on the stage, the College theater players gave an excellent performance of Leslie Howard's farce-comedy, "Murray Hill or Miss Tweedles Gets Married," yesterday in the Federal theater on Treasure Island.

"Murray Hill" is a play built for happiness and spreads it all over the place. The plot—aside from a delightful romance—pits mid-Victorian ideas against modern ones and the result is a riot of laughter.

The cast under the very able supervision of Jessie Casebolt, turned in admirable performances. George Archambeault as the drunken nephew and Jeanne Kerwin as the old spinster who learned to jitterbug were especially comical. Both gave unusually fine portrayals.

Martha Wilson and Herb Smith, though rather weak in spots, did well on providing the romantic interest. Dorothy Fitzpatrick, portraying one of the oldest characters, looked the youngest despite her gray wig. She had a small part, but did very well under the circumstances.

Louise Winter was most convincing in her role as a very straight-laced old maid. Hallock Wagner and Wallace Twichell also did good work.

The performance of "Murray Hill" in the Little theater next Thursday night should be great. No State student should miss it.

NOTICE!

All Gater reporters are requested to attend staff meeting Monday, October 30, in Annex A-8, at 12:30 p.m. Bring your lunch if necessary.

Picture Appointments for Franciscan This Tuesday

Ernie Miguel, Franciscan editor, urges all members of fraternities who have received notices regarding their appointments for portraits on either next Tuesday or Thursday to be sure to appear.

The photographer will be on the campus from ten to four on those days. All fraternity members must sign up in the Franciscan office for appointments. Persons failing to do so or failing to appear at the appointed time will have no pictures in the annual.

New Site Rally Scheduled For Wednesday

Committee chairmen have been appointed by Bob Sweeney, student body president, for the new campus celebration to be held at the Ingleside site, Wednesday, November 1.

The following were appointed: Jack Fischer, entertainment; Harold Martin, publicity; and Bob Sweeney, Fred Kline, Louise Valerino, and Dorothy Foppiano, special committee. Chairman of the food committee is yet to be named.

Meeting today with representatives from San Francisco Junior college, the committee heads will work out a definite program for the joint rally in connection with the traditional State-J. C. game Friday, Nov. 3.

The plan of transporting students to the new campus by bus has been abandoned, and instead an auto caravan will leave immediately after 12 o'clock. Any student who owns a car is requested to see Bob Sweeney in the student body office as soon as possible.

Many prominent people have been invited to attend the ground breaking ceremony, including Governor Olson, Walter Dexter, state director of education, Senator John F. Shelley, proponent of the bills which secured the new campus, Dean Browne of J.C. and Dr. A. C. Roberts, State president.

All afternoon classes will be dismissed next Wednesday, and a picnic luncheon will be served on the Ingleside-Lake Merced site.

Poetry Group to Meet Friday Nite

Original verses by student poets were being given their final polishing today for presentation at the meeting of Poetry workshop tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. Ruth Witt-Diamant, 44 Mendocino avenue.

Mrs. Witt-Diamant paid particular compliment to new contributions of Jim Cleghorn, Marie Evans, Ray Hutchinson and Marian Perry.

REGISTRAR'S OFFICE

Tentative adjustments of credits to date have been mailed to each high sophomore listed as a candidate for a credential.

All high sophomores taking a Liberal arts curriculum will receive their adjustments during the next week. Any student contemplating changing from a Liberal arts curriculum must notify the Registrar's office for rechecking before November 6.

The Time Has Come! Staters To Embark For Cal Poly Funfest; Complete Ticket Sellout Assured

400 Tickets Sold To Chicken's Ball

Lack of adequate seating space was today proving a serious problem to managers of the coming Chicken's ball. Over 400 tickets have already been sold or contracted for, and this approximates the seating capacity of Frederick Burk auditorium.

When the affair, which is an annual vaudeville variety show, staged for the benefit of the Mary Kleinecke Scholarship fund was staged last time a serious overcrowding resulted.

Erwin Bischoff, chairman, announced that an effort will be made to secure another auditorium with larger seating capacity near the campus. Prohibitive rentals may prove too serious an obstacle, however, and the affair will remain scheduled for Frederick Burk until further notice.

Remaining tickets will be kept on sale until the limit has been reached. Sigma Pi Sigma was today leading the race for the ticket-selling trophy, according to Louise Vallarino, ticket chairman.

Previews of all acts are now being held, with November 1 as the deadline for entry of clubs.

A feature of the evening of the ball will be concessions under Lew Morris, that will lend a carnival spirit to the affair. Candy, ice cream, and soft drinks will be vended.

Ben Neff Speaks To Phi Epsilon Mu

Benny Neff, Lowell high school basketball coach spoke before a group of men students in the Little theater, Tuesday, in the first of a series of talks by outstanding sports authorities. Neff stated that, as in all fields, the basketball mentor must learn by the trial and error method.

"All games," said Neff, "are fundamentally simple, and the avoidance of complexities will simplify teaching the prep school athlete. Master-minding is an element that has disappeared from the courts.

Neff diagrammed plays and explained the difficulties that might be encountered by the new coach. Stressing the value of basic fundamentals to the inexperienced player is of the utmost importance and tends to show the calibre of coaching which a team has received.

GO TO CAL POLY

And several hundred hilarious Staters are embarking Saturday on the Cal Poly excursion with the premeditated intention of breaking it for twenty-two hours of exciting, merry activity.

Hailed by campus pundits as the most super-plus of all State entertainments—in fact the grand-daddy of all campus merriment—the annual excursion is anxiously awaited by the entire student body each year; and now — SATURDAY'S THE DAY!

Leaving the Southern Pacific station at Third and Townsend, the excursion will be replete with activity for the entire day. Hay rides, two dances, swimming, dinners, barbecues, and miscellaneous entertainment has been planned for the Golden Tide rooters by the student officials of Cal Poly.

"Friday's the last day for reserving tickets for the excursion," said Jimmy Fitzgerald, general chairman, "and judging from the number of tickets already sold, the excursion is now an assured success. With a mammoth program planned for us at San Luis Obispo by the Cal Poly student body, an exceptionally good time is the only road open for excursionists. No small amount of thanks is due to my committee, the student body, and Cal Poly for the assistance they have given me in planning the trip," he stated.

Staters will be met at the station by a parade composed of

A.W.S. Halloween Party Held Tonite

The A.W.S. will give their Halloween party this evening at Sigmond Stern grove between 4:30 and 7:30. All woman students are invited to attend, said Ben Lavezzo, co-chairman of the affair.

The main part of the evening's entertainment will be held in the club house on the grounds.

When congratulated on the organization of the party and the special plans that have been made to insure the success of this entertainment, Ben Lavezzo said, "All the heads of the committees and their members have worked hard for the success of this affair. They did a swell job, and all the thanks and credit is due them."

Gater Line Ready, Backfield In Doubtful Condition For Grid Encounter With Cal Poly

Backfield Injuries Present Coach Boyle's
Main Problem: Ability of Gaters
To Get Rolling Will Decide Game

Bill Stein, another ex-lineman will start, with Dave Schiller also scheduled for duty. Right half will be handled by former left half Reno Cordoni.

READE STARTS

"I plan on opening Chad Reade at left half," commented Doyle, "providing he doesn't stick his hand through a window, fall off a street car or something between now and game-time. Otherwise it will be Mario Machi at this position."

The fast-improving John Holmgren will also see backfield action, and maybe Danny Ruth. Until last Wednesday, Ruth was a member of the junior varsity team, but the varsity may need him more this week.

The Tide's front line of defense looks to be pretty well set with all men ready to go on Saturday. Bob Lee, Dave Rohrer, and Guido de Ghetaldi were injured last week, but are back in uniforms already. In fact Rohrer looks like he will grab one of the opening jobs at tackle. Marv Fairbanks and Hook Hanrahan are two other tackles set for the gun.

GUARDS SET

The guards are set and ready three deep. The competition is so keen here that Bob Cumming, who has been a third stringer, looks like a starter along with Guy Swannack, Jim King, Joe Suttles, and deGhetaldi are also reliable guards who might be in the starting lineup.

Center and the ends are likewise in good shape. Jim Gittins, Wes Dahl, and Dick Muller will handle the ball-snapping, and Hal Meller, George Lorbeer, George Thayer, Charlie Christensen, and Lee will take care of the wing spots.

CAL POLY READY

The Mustangs have met one enemy in common with the Gaters. Against Humboldt State, the boys from the south were edged out by a 13 to 9 score while the Staters were taken 19 to 0. The comparative performances bode evil for State.

Especially in the kicking department will the local boys be at a disadvantage. With Lowrie out, the Tide have no kicker to compete with Mustang quarterback Garcia who has been sending punts out for forty and fifty yards consistently in every game.

Cal Poly has done a good portion of their scoring via the air this season, and unless State's pass defense tightens up, the game is going to be won here.

With a 185-pound average in the line, and a 171-pound backfield average, the Polymen will have to give a couple of pounds per man to the Staters, but they have an edge in experience. The majority of their starters are veterans.

SHIFTY BACK

With a couple of shifty backs like Joe Santos and George Silva to contend with, the Gaters will have trouble keeping the Mustangs from scoring, so the only way they are going to win this ballgame is by sending a couple of scores over themselves.

Favorites In Finals

Final round in the badminton tournament commences today when Stone plays the winner of the McGann vs. Nyman match for the men's singles championship.

Women's singles have just reached the semi-final stage with Taloff and Sandeen playing the first heat.

In the mixed doubles Stein and Scordellis who copped the championship last year won on a default from Chapman and De Conde.

Champion among the men's doubles will be decided when the Stein-McGann team tangles with the victor of the Stone-Nyman vs. Hooper-Jackson tilt.

Women's doubles are still in the preliminary stage with the Biggi-Sandeen unit first to reach the semi-finals.

FENCERS GET 'BOOK LARNIN'

State's fencing varsity today planned the use of "book larnin'" to defeat some of its coming opponents, when Coach Len Duckworth announced that each member of the team would be equipped with a text book on fencing.

"Regular lesson plans will be followed," Duckworth said. "These will be varied with workout bouts, similar to chalk talks in football."

The team's next match is with California, although a date suitable to both teams has not yet been set.

Intramural Actions

Although the Muscle-Men have captured the title in Division A, the Jellybellies and Parisian Hotshots battled out a scheduled game last Monday and wound up in a 6-6 tie.

The Hotshots scored first on a pass from Schultz to Arnold Vezani over the goal line. The Jellybellie score was also on a pass—from Gene Debrecht to Daryl Jaspersen. An extra five minutes failed to produce any more scoring.

Saul Simon, Jack Winter, Choy Wing, and Al Davidson starred for the Jellies, while Sullivan, Acorn, Oxenkall, Rodgers, Bayers, and Johns looked good for the Hotshots.

DINOSAURS WIN

Tuesday's Division D game saw the Dinosaurs trample over the Newman club by the score of 13-0. Sanderson caught a pass from Marv Fairbanks to chalk up the first seven points. A pass from Herman "Swoosh" Wiggan to Jack Witt accounted for the remaining six points.

Tom Beggs, George Otis, Jack Kelly, Gordon Wilcox, and Cochran excelled for the losers, while Besio, George Parker, McNeese, horse-drawn haywagons, the combined Cal Poly and State bands, and the entire Cal Poly student body. They will be escorted on visits through the campus, to dance in the gym, and to a barbecue dinner at sunset in the Cal Poly grove from 5:30 to 7. The Cal Poly rumper room in the Student Union will throw open its doors to Staters.

Swimming and a water polo game between nautically minded Staters and the Cal Poly men will be open to any excursionists who feel in the mind for a dip in the cold water of the indoor pool.

Two dances will be held in the gym during the day for the Terpsichorean-minded, one in the afternoon and the other after the game lasting until the train leaves for home at 12:30.

BEARS SEEK TO END J. V. WIN STREAK

Mission Expected to Give Strong Argument

Making another bid for a perfect season, State's junior varsity team battles the Mission high Bears this afternoon at Roberts field.

Scoring eleven touchdowns in four games, unscored and untied, the Jayvees find their match in the leaders of the prep league. Mission will field an array of football talent that challenges the undefeated record of the Jayvees.

BACKFIELD LOSS

Minus the services of Danny Ruth, Coach Thomas Bragg is faced with the problem of finding a backfield replacement for the vacated left half position. Ruth moved up to the varsity this week to strengthen varsity Coach Dick Boyle's backfield reserves.

Without this break-away threat, Bragg must depend on his reserves to fill the gap left by Ruth's departure. Pete Padilla and Walter Swanigan, both capable substitutes, will see plenty of action today with the first string.

Dick Webster, regular right half, will be called on to handle the running duties. Webster has experience at these assignments, for he was last year's leading scorer for the Braggmen.

PASSING THREAT

Craig Gaffney, hard crashing fullback, is also a constant scoring threat. His accurate passing attack may succeed in keeping the Bear defense spread long enough for short plunging gains over the middle.

Both Gaffney and Webster are good punters, and can be depended upon to slow up the Bear offensive attacks with long punts. They also figure in the passing attack, and although Gaffney is the more accurate of the two, Webster flips the pigskin with ease.

Mentor Bragg reviewed twenty-eight plays this week, emphasizing the aerial game, indicating a touchdown via the air is possible.

Final Practice Tilt of Soccer Team Scheduled for Tomorrow

Staters Meet Lowell Squad Before
Starting Upon Intercollegiate Matches

Tide Runners Meet Indians

This afternoon at 3:30, State's cross-country team gets its first real test of the season when they encounter the A.A.A. champions from Commerce high in a race that will extend from the entrance to Golden Gate park to the beach. Covering approximately three and one-half miles, the race should prove whether or not the Gaters are ready for college competition. The Bulldogs who are the triple A champs should give the State entrants a very close battle.

Fred Kline, Jack Carolan, Dick Schwab, Marcus Davis, Aubrey Wendling, Alex Winchester and Rolfe Leavitt will be the runners who will represent State this afternoon. These lads having won their two previous meets will be out to protect their untarnished record.

Due to the efforts of Marcus Davis, a meet with the California Bears has been scheduled in the near future. Brutis Hamilton, Bear mentor, accepted Davis' invitation to meet his team.

Johnstone Wins

At the S.F.J.C. Playday last Saturday Fern Johnstone competing in the 30-yard archery contest with eight other girls got the top score. Fern brought home the only prize State won that day.

San Francisco State's soccer aggregation will tangle with the ram-paging Indians from Lowell high school tomorrow at Beach Chalet field. This will be State's second and final practice battle before they embark on a series of inter-collegiate contests.

EASY TIME

In their first game of the season, the Gaters had an easy time beating Galileo by the score of 2-0. Coach Gerald Kenny has been putting the men through hard scrimmages to try and iron out the weaknesses he saw during that game.

Originally slated to play the Balboa Buccaneers tomorrow, the State team was forced to cancel the contest because Balboa had a pressing engagement.

TOMORROW'S GAME

"I expect the team to continue their good work that they have shown in practice," said John Finn, captain, "and take this contest in stride. After the game we will really have had a little experience and then we will encounter the colleges. San Mateo, S.F.J.C., Menlo, San Jose State and others will be played soon."

Tomorrow's game is scheduled to start at 3:30 and the admission is free.

The committee for the tea was composed of Pres. Carolyn Grothe, Marian Hansen, Muriel Vellou, Jean Hamilton, Rhoda Ayers, Nellie Mouradian, and Doris Heimerle.

N.Y.A. Conference Discuss Administration

A new picture of the role NYA plays in aiding northern California students and graduates was held today by college and university presidents following a conference with NYA officials held at Stockton Junior college last Friday.

San Francisco State was represented by Dr. Roberts, Dean Ward, Dean Cox, Mr. Nee and Miss McFarland. The group was welcomed by Dr. Tully C. Knoles, president of the College of the Pacific. Topics discussed included: NYA area supervision, selection of students, project activities and administration methods.

Pre-Nursing Club Organizes Soon

Plans for the reorganizing of the Pre-nursing club are now under way. Dr. Barney is the sponsor of the club and will be present at the first meeting in the Activities room on Thursday, November 2, at 12:10.

The girls who are striving to get the club under way have been working tirelessly on new plans. The organizers are Elizabeth Duval, Hilda Burchell, Florence Miller, and Jean Abbey.

The club is for the girls of the college who are interested in becoming nurses, or those who are majoring in science. Those interested should contact post box 1993.

BAND GOING, ARE YOU?GO TO CAL POLY*New Press Hoped For Golden Gater

Dreams of a college press at the new Lake Merced campus were being whipped into shape today by Gater staff members for presentation at the third of a series of weekly editorial conferences to be held Monday at 12:30 p.m. in Annex A-8.

Ed Pierce, editor-in-chief, will preside.

Editors, advertising and business managers, reporters and the faculty advisers, D. W. Simonson and Luther Meyer, took part in last Monday's free-for-all discussion of Gater goals and standards.

First checkup of a new beat coverage chart, showing gaps in work of reporters or editors, is scheduled for Monday's meeting.

Theater Tryouts

Try-outs for "The Valiant," a one-act prison drama, will be held from 4 to 6 p.m. today in the Little theater, according to Wallace Twichell, student director.

Student body members are invited to try out for the five male parts and one female role.

The cast for "She Stoops to Conquer" by Oliver Goldsmith is not yet complete, according to Herb Smith, student director.

Numerous small male roles must be filled and female parts will have understudies, Smith said.

Those already chosen for the cast include Hallock Wagner, Charles Maurer, George Archambeault, Hipatia Scardellis, Janice Finrock, Stephanie Singer, Ray Hutchinson, and Wallace Twichell.

'Our Town' Tonight

Ending the semi-annual "Play Festival" held in conjunction with Humboldt State will be the Humboldt performance of "Our Town" under the direction of Bill Hoppe at 8 p.m. tonight in the Federal theater on Treasure Island. There will be no admission charge.

'Guess Who' Winner

Winner of the "Guess Who" contest sponsored by the Chaser, News guild campus humor magazine, was Nannette Mitchell, announced Jim Martin, editor, today.

Miss Mitchell collected $1 for identifying Carolyn Bender and Danny Wasserstein as the two students in the scene from "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer," a play presented at Roosevelt junior high in December, 1934.

Explorer, sportsman, scientist, conservationist, author of the authoritative, new "A Book on Duck Shooting," Heilner knows the waterfowl flyways from California to Maine, Alaska to Mexico, and those of Europe too. "VAN" has been a Camel smoker for 18 years.

You can tell a lot about a cigarette by whether it burns fast or slowly. Camel cigarettes are noted for their long burning. In fact, they burned longer, slower than any other brand tested, in recent scientific studies. Van Campen Heilner, the famous American authority on wild game, points out an interesting angle to this. "Camels give more smoking because those choice tobaccos burn so slowly," he says. "And I think the way they burn is a good way to judge the quality of cigarettes too. I can smoke them steadily and they still taste smooth and cool, and my mouth feels fresh—and there's no throat irritation. Camels are mild, flavorful. They give more pleasure per puff—and more puffs per pack." Get extra smoking per pack—topped off with the delicate taste of choice tobaccos. Smoke Camels!
